

INDIANA INgov ROADSHOW SMALL BUSINESS EVENT!

Question: Where can I find expert advice on financial assistance as well as workplace safety, health and environmental regulations? Where do I turn to file business entity reports and to make sure my business is represented on decisions affecting utility rates and services?

Answer: The INgov Roadshow is Indiana's premier resource for small business assistance. The event consists of presentations on the resources and services made available by Indiana state agencies and an introduction to state managers charged with overseeing small business initiatives. The event will close with a small business networking session. Agencies participating in this event include the Indiana Department of Environmental Management, Labor, Economic Development Corporation, Utility Consumer Counselor, Administration, Secretary of State as well as many others.
